

Why should any phone caller be allowed to stalk or harass any person or business? If individuals took the actions that most telmarketers take by calling persons at home to solicit or survey people, they would face civil charges for certain. So why is telemarketing even a valid and legalized form of business practice. If people are saying do not call me, the our elected reps should protect and enforce our right.